March 14, 2017

Dear Parents,

We are gearing up for another fun and exciting ball season. Quad Town Baseball follows the structured Rally Cap Program. This program helps teach players the five FUNdamentals of baseball in a fun and safe environment. Players have the opportunity to perform different tasks in order to earn a colored Baseball Canada DQ® Rally Cap. Cap colors correspond with various levels of achievement.

Goals

1. Create a fun environment in which children engaged in the game of baseball.
2. Develop fundamental motor skills, teach baseball skills, and basic rules to our players.
3. Experience success with an emphasis on good sportsmanship.
4. Promote increased self-esteem.
5. Recruiting new coaches and volunteers

NEW THIS YEAR

- GIRLS SOFTBALL in the Under 10 age category!
- Funding available for individuals wishing to attend coaching or umpire clinics
- 1 day skills clinics for baseball and softball

We are always looking for coaches, managers, umpires, executive members & other parent volunteers – please contact us if interested!

A friendly reminder that each child will need their own glove, helmet, water bottle, and appropriate footwear (runners or cleats)!

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact an executive member or email quadtownminorball@outlook.ca. See you all on the field!

Sincerely,

Quad Town Minor Ball Executive
